Accidents Take Vehicle Toll

111

With F.M.L.

This is St. Nick, via satellite, advising clearance at 12:01 Greenwich Mean Time, for the usual incredible trip at speed of light to the usual incredible number of homes. Please clear your chimneys.

TV COMMENTATOR: This is Chutney A. Misanthrope, hoping to give a trip summary of a famous diplomat, world traveler and ageless "jetsetter" who, as you know, is now underway for his "usual incredible trip at speed of light to the usual incredible number of homes". That is a direct quote. How is the jetstream, Santa?

ST. NICK: Unless you are 10 or under, don't presume too much familiarity Chut. The world needs me. I am, indeed, a busy man. To answer your question, wind velocity is normal, wind turbulent, humidity high, turning frosty as my temperature reading heads to a normal below zero. My jingle bells are shattering the intense cold. Donner and Blitzen want to cop out. But no matter.

TV COMMENTATOR: We had you on ground camera for the first few miles off the North Pole Cape, and now we are tracking by radar. Sound is clear. From the blips on the scope, I would agree your reindeer are angry.

ST. NICK: The ones running true to form may be on something. Modern reindeer. Donner and Blitzen will endure. They always have.

TV COMMENTATOR: We are getting reports from Scandinavia that kids stockings are filled in Fjord country along the North Sea, that Christmas trees in West Germany have presents under them, that Yule logs in England are igniting as if by some spontaneous combustion. You're in good form tonight, Santa.

ST. NICK: Splendid flight plan. Chimney clearance a bit snug, particularly in the Netherlands. And of Donner confuses windmills for tops of houses.

TV ANNOUNCER: We have you on camera in Northern Italy. That was an incredible pass you made over Bern and those Swiss Alps. It would seem your sleigh handles well. We have you turning east, no back west. What was that?

ST. NICK: Iron curtain, or reasonable facsimile. Lots of ill will over Czechoslovakia. Decided to wait 'til next year.

TV ANNOUNCER: Malta TV caught a fleeting glimpse of light heading west over the Mediterranean. Already through in Europe?

ST. NICK: Climate is warm here at Buenos Aires. Filled several hundred thousand Pinatas in a few seconds. Not bad. Sleigh running even better with reduced load. North American load incredible this year. Thought we might have trouble over the Sargasso Sea a few minutes ago. Donner and Blitzen are fantastic reindeer. Holding the whole, hopped-up crew in line. Some biting and snapping going on. Think we finished with Dutch Gulaas. Heading for Central America. Mexico City is beautiful this time of year. Afraid, however, smog is high.

TV ANNOUNCER: Yes, satellite communication has you over Mexico, D. F. How do you do it, Santa? The sky is lighting up to the north. You must be in the Valley, South Texas.

ST. NICK: Approach the U.S. from a different direction every Christmas. Keeps tens of millions guessing. Always waiting up for me. If you don't change the flight plan, some Yankee kid might see what it's all about. Think that's Kansas City down there. We turn east here, Reindeer work Southeast to North-east, buzz Canada and Northwest, try California last before the big turn north for home.

TV ANNOUNCER: Network reports find tons of stuff in every city and suburb. Santa. Small towns are doing nicely. You sure put out a blanket of light.

ST. NICK: Got to, Chut. It's my job. Professional pride, you know. Wish I could find a warm welcome all over the world. Reindeer learned a number of years ago a Bamboo Curtain is just as obnoxious as iron. Don't know what to think of people these days. We always take a look at the China Wall, though. Amazing construction job. Saw it from the moon one time. Only man-made thing visible from out there.

TV ANNOUNCER: We have you on radar heading north over Alaska. Would you say it's been a good mission?

ST. NICK: One of the best. Burned my suit in one of those California fireplaces, though. And Donner was even having trouble with Blitzen. Looks like he's on something too. What a trip!

TV ANNOUNCER: You're a wonder, Santa. And those reindeer. Incredible speed, incredible. Could you sum up for our tens of millions who can't see you, but believe in you, Santa?

ST. NICK: Everything is in place, kids. I'm good for another trip as long as you want me.

TV ANNOUNCER: We're pretty certain they want you, Santa. They talked for weeks with your sales reps all over this country. And they thought about you in all those other countries.

ST. NICK: It's the thought that counts, Chut. Makes the trip worthwhile. And it sure turns these reindeer on. I think maybe the elves may have hoped things intentionally. But that's elves, for you.

TV ANNOUNCER: Your signal is a little dim, Santa. Would you sign us off?

ST. NICK: My pleasure. "MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL AND TO ALL A GOOD NIGHT." How's that? Read that somewhere. Good night, Chut.

TV ANNOUNCER: Good night, Nick.

County and city law enforcement officers are hoping the rash of accidents and other assorted offenses reported over the weekend aren't a preview of the coming holiday period.

Highway patrolmen investigated four traffic mishaps and reported three arrests for possession of marijuana, while the city police reported accidents, breakins, and dog bites.

Justice of the Peace Jess Brock set bond at $2000 each for three Ft. Hood soldiers following their arrest for possession of marijuana by highway patrolmen Saturday night.

The men were first arrested for speeding on Highway 190 by DPS Patrolmen Milton Wright and Mike Giles and a short time later were arrested for possession of marijuana, Wright said.

Patrolman Wright also reported these accidents:

A car driven by Charlie Taylor Jr. of Carmine was totally demolished when it went out of control on a wet US 77 and hit a bridge. The accident occurred at 11:30 p.m. Saturday about three miles south of Rockdale. Taylor received minor injuries.

Rudolph Sullivan of Abilene escaped injury when the gasoline truck he was driving left the road at the intersection of highways 36 and 79 at Milano and went into a pasture. That accident occurred about 3:30 a.m. Monday.

Later Monday morning patrolmen investigated an accident at Thorndale. Dennis Fields of Arkansas was treated in a Taylor hospital for injuries he received when the pickup truck he was driving struck a parked pickup. Both vehicles were reported total losses.

Patrolmen also reported a one-car accident Monday night, involving a car driven by George Dewey McCall of Yarrington. The car went out of control on a curve and hit a tree near the North Elm Cemetery. No injuries were reported.

City police investigated a two-car accident about 8:45 p.m. Saturday on highway 77 north. Reports said cars driven by Charles Kirk and Roy Reynolds, both of Cameron, were heavily damaged when they collided during a drizzly rain.

Kirk, who was treated for injuries in a local hospital, told investigating officers his car had slid into a ditch and the collision occurred as he was backing out onto the road. Two Reynolds children who were in their father's car were taken to the hospital, where one was treated for minor injuries.

No one was injured in a car-school bus collision shortly after 8 a.m. Monday, police said. The car, driven by Mrs. Edward Demerson of Cameron, collided with a Cameron school bus driven by Seth Dockery. The accident occurred at the intersection of North Houston and East 10th Streets.

Police are investigating breakins reported at the Bargain oil Co. Thursday night and at the high school Saturday night. The first was discovered by patrolmen on night duty. Merchandise and a radio were taken from the station by thieves who broke into a door.

School Supt. D. R. Dodson discovered the break in at Yoe High Sunday afternoon. Several rooms were reported sprayed with some of the school's fire extinguishers, and three extinguishers were stolen.

The dog bites were reported by Mrs. R. A. Miller, who told police the family dog bit her and two of her children. Police Sgt. Truman White destroyed the dog and its head was sent to the State Health Department at Austin for a rabies test.

Police this week were being instructed by DPS Officer Floyd Tippit in how to fill out new accident forms. Classes were held at City Hall Monday and Tuesday.

Santa Letters Spark Christmas Herald

One of the year's brightest times for The Herald staff is the annual preview of children's letters to Santa sent from elementary schools and arriving in the mail.

Many of the letters, painstakingly written or printed, are passed around for everyone's enjoyment before they go on the pages of this annual Christmas issue. This year, as usual, there are touching letters and others that are just plain cute.

And Santa, who has become expert at such things, will, as usual, be able to decipher letters whose spelling may not quite reach the adult mark.

We start here with a few sample letters and you will find hundreds more inside along with annual greetings from local and area businesses and individuals.

Dear Santa,

How are you? Just fine I hope. I wish I could help you. But I couldn't go that far. I could make guns, books, desks, pictures and houses. I wish you would give me a house, pictures, desks, books and guns. Your friend,

David Folz

Dear Santa Claus,

How are your reindeer are they all right. Yes they are all right. I would like for Christmas a bicycle and a football for Christmas. If you have a happy Christmas I will have a happy Christmas too. And all of your reindeer all right. Yes they are I hope your reindeer can come with you to Christmas.

John Matula

Dear Santa,

I would like to have a Johnny Lightning Indy 500, and a shooting gallery, a drum set and then go by and see Flip Wilson when he act as killer and say don't you push on me I'll call my husband and then see James Brown when he go to the flower.

Charles Hardman

Dear Santa Claus,

How are you doing? Christmas is just around the corner. I know you will have fun on Christmas eve bringing the toys to us. I hope the weather isn't so bad so that the reindeer won't get cold. I read a joke about you on the of a book. It said What do Santa do when he go to the garden (hoo hoo hoo) Now I am going to tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a Walkie talkie BB Gun, Johnny Lighting set, hot wheel set, Mustang car, and my niece want a doll. Your friend,

City Tax Refund Shows Growth In Local Sales

The City of Cameron deposited a check for $15,460.22 from the state comptroller in the general fund this month for sales tax receipts for the quarter ending September 30, 1970.

It was an increase of over $1500 over the previous quarter and an increase of nearly $2000 over the same period in 1969.

Receipts from the city sales tax, approved by Cameron voters in April, 1968 have shown a steady increase, reflecting growth in sales. Receipts for the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1968 were $11,543.81.

Receipts in 1970 show a continued increase with $12,959.29 deposited for the quarter ending March 31 and $14,802.65 for the period ending June 30.

The deposit this month brings the total receipts for 1970 up to $43,222.16. Still to come is the sales tax refund for the last quarter of 1970, which will be received in March of 1971.

Gene Autry Guns, Candy Christmas 1940 Recalled In Letters

The "big items" in Santa's Christmas mail this year are BB guns and Easy-Bake ovens, but in 1940 it was Gene Autry guns, fruit and firecrackers. Christmas was celebrated on the courthouse lawn in 1940 with a decorated Christmas tree, carols led by choirs from the Cameron churches and 2,500 bags of fruit and candy for the children.

Letters to Santa published in the 1940 Cameron Herald Christmas edition prove that children and their dreams have changed very little:

Dear Santa:
I am 9 years old. I want a new air gun, a new football, a new knife. Please bring me some nuts and oranges and a new Gene Autry gun, a scabbard and a pretty new bicycle.
Danile Haag

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl in the second grade. Please bring me a doll and a ball and a book. Please bring me some nuts and candy and fruits also.
Evelyn Wuensche

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a knife and air gun, a ball, a gun, candy, nuts and some apples. I am in the third grade and I am a boy. I am 9 years old. I have passed every year so far and I want some dominoes.
Robert Fulton

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl in the second grade. I have tried to be a very good girl this year. I want a doll with a suitcase full of clothes. My little brother wants a big truck. I expect mother would want a sheet and daddy a tie, I guess.
Frances Dee Ferguson

Dear Santa:
Please send me a scooter, cap gun and gloves. I am a good boy.
G. B. McDermott

Dear Santa:
I have tried to be a good girl. I hope that you don't bring me a switch for I don't want a spanking. I want so many things that I can't decide. I want, oh so much, a wrist watch for Christmas. Please bring me a pretty doll. You are so sweet to me. I will leave you a cake and some coffee. I hope you can bring me an erector set, too.
Mary Jo Fikes

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a doll, little aprons, candy and nuts. Be good.
Betha Ann Baker

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a truck with a shovel and a cap. Don't forget the other children.
Johnny Morgan

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl 8 years old and in the second grade. I like to go to school and I love my teachers very much. Would you please bring me a desk and chair and a gold ring, a box of hankies, a sewing kit, some fruit, candy and nuts. Hope you and Mrs. Claus have a nice Christmas.
Doris Louise Senkel

Dear Santa:
I hope you can bring me a scooter and a pair of boots. Please bring me one little surprise gift. I will hang my stocking in the living room. Remember I have moved since last Christmas. I now live in my grandmother's home. You will find something to eat near the Christmas tree.
John B. Henderson

Dear Santa:
I want a blackboard that hangs on the wall, some chalk, a radio and an old tiny fire engine. Please bring my little brother a tricycle.
Albert McCullin

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a big tractor that I can ride in, a superman gun, some firecrackers, some sparklers, a cow boy suit and a wagon. I am 8 years old.
Billy Shelander

Dear Santa:
I am a little boy 8 years old and in the second grade. I think I've been pretty good. Will you please bring me a football, a pair of boots and a pair of trousers. Goodbye Santa and thank you.
Ralph Wayne Meeks

Dear Santa:
A happy Christmas to you. I hope you are well. You must be rushed right now. Please bring me a big doll with curly hair, a pair of drum major boots and a birthstone ring. My birthday is in January. I hope I am not asking too much. My oldest sister is in the 6th grade and she would like a wrist watch.
Helen Olbrich

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a piano, baking set and doll. I am 9 years old and in the third grade. Please remember everyone.
Bobbie Ann Burnett

Dear Santa:
I won't ask for much this year. There are so many children to bring presents to. Please bring me a good football, a superman picture gun and plenty of firecrackers.
John Ritchie Meyer

Holiday Garbage Will Have To Wait

There will be no garbage or trash service in Cameron on Friday, Dec. 25, Supt. James Hale said this week.

Garbage and trash scheduled for pickup Friday will be picked up on the next regular scheduled collection day.

Hale said the heavy pileup of gift wrapping paper and other holiday debris will make it impossible for the trucks to "catch up" for Friday. He said trash trucks will start picking up discarded Christmas trees on Monday.

Mail Carriers To Have 3-Day Rest

Cameron mail carriers will be enjoying a three-day holiday this Christmas -- there will be no delivery of mail on rural or city delivery routes Saturday, December 26.

Postmaster Narvie L. Caperton said the stamp window in the post office will be open Saturday for regular hours from 8 until 12. There will be no parcel post delivery Saturday.

FIRE DESTROYS HAVELIK HOME

Fire of undetermined cause completely destroyed the Henry Havelik home 3 miles west of Cameron SH 36 Saturday afternoon.

Cameron Volunteer Fireman John Andres said no one was at home when the fire broke out. It was reported by a neighbor at 4 p.m., but was burning out of control by the time fire extinguishing equipment from Cameron reached the scene.

Anders said Havelik, his wife, daughter and grandson lived at the house, but all were away when the fire started.

Cameron firemen were called out again Saturday night, but this proved to be a false alarm.

CHRISTMAS LEGEND tells us that the donkey was marked with a cross to remind the world that it though lowest of animals, was chosen to carry Mary to Bethlehem to the stable where Christ was born. The two donkeys owned by Mrs. L. W. Stroup, Mary Ruth and her four month old Bo-Don, are true to the Christmas legend with a distinct black cross down the back and across the animals' withers.

Peace And Appreciation...

Merry Christmas dear readers, wherever you are. Your Cameron Herald has enjoyed your confidence and perhaps helped you build anew or solve a few problems during 1970. We wish you continued happiness and peace this Yuletide.

From everyone at 108 East First St. to all of you in Central Texas and around the nation, here's to a splendid Christmas.

May we appreciate what we have, the happiness with which we enjoy it and peace for people not so fortunate as we.

Heavy Handling At Christmas...

Christmas in Poland will be under a new regime after riots compelled resignations last week of Wladyslaw Gomułka, his president and three other key Communist Poland officials.

Gomułka rose as a liberal influence to the Polish premiership in 1956 following revolts in Polish cities and fell with the rebellion against government price increases on food.

Troops and tanks went into the streets to deal with angry mobs rioting against food price rises.

Reports said at least a dozen were killed and hundreds wounded.

Warsaw sees Edward Gierek, one of the Polish Communist Party's top economists, assume the No. 1 party job.

It is interesting that a controlled economy such as Eastern Europe's finds the same pressures of supply and demand of some kind influencing price structure. The reaction was emotional and bloody, apparently in the spirit of Polish resentment against stringent central controls.

Gomułka steadily became a strong man as his years in power continued. Employment of troops and tanks, smacking of Czechoslovakia a couple of years ago, should again give pause to anyone who relishes this alternative system over ours.

It will be white Christmas in Poland, their climate chill and bare as Russian winter in December. But it will be a time before the Poles forget the heavy handling of people angered at arbitrary imposition of authority over the bread they feed their families.

"Low Down"

FROM THE
Congressional Record

By JOE CRUMP

(A Column for Readers Who Haven't Time to Review the Congressional Record Daily)

PROS AND CONS OF POW RESCUE MISSION

As reported in the RECORD these excerpts reflect the attitudes of the various congressmen toward the recent POW rescue mission into North Vietnam.

SEN. HUGH SCOTT (Pa.) "... I cannot understand how anyone could be critical either of the operation per se or of the government which is trying to release prisoners of war..."

REP. G.V. MONTGOMERY (Miss.) "... All Americans -- both hawks and doves -- should take pride in the fact we tried to free some American POW's..."

REP. J.T. BROYHILL (Va.) "... From hard experience I know the plight of a prisoner of war... in the battle of the bulge... I was taken prisoner... During one bombing raid in Nuremberg, half the group were killed or wounded, yet we were proud of the bombers and the men who were still fighting for us and our country..."

REP. A.W. WATSON (S.C.) "... When the Pentagon received reports that some of our POW's were dying under concentration camp conditions, they justifiably ordered the raid..."

REP. L.C. ARENS (Ill.) "... I wonder what they would be saying had several hundred American prisoners been found and released..."

REP. D. KUYKENDALL (Tenn.) "... The very boldness of the attempt shows the world that we care about these men..."

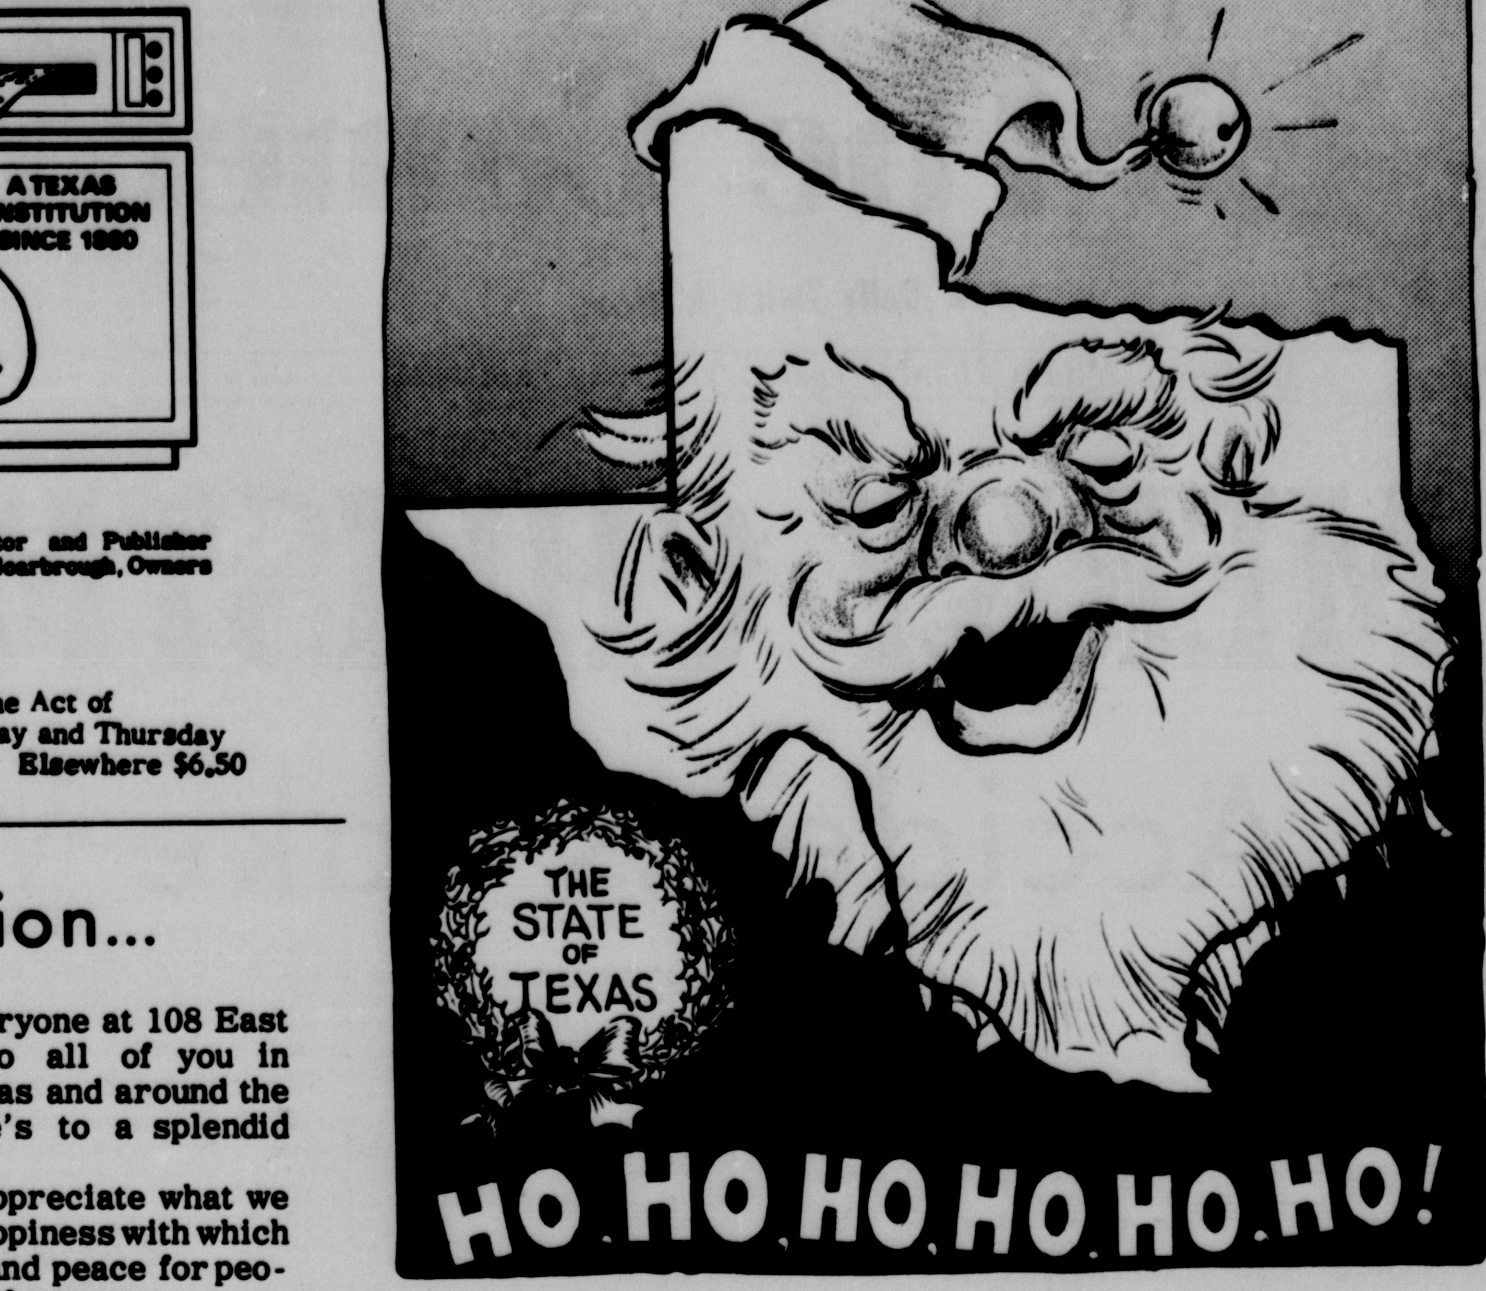

SEN. J.G. TOWER (Texas) "... We have been at the peace table two years... Perhaps, this daring strike to free Americans will convince the North Vietnamese that there is no profit in it..."

SEN. E.J. GURNEY (Fla.) "... The force came undetected through one of the most sophisticated radar protective systems in existence... The mission was far from being a 'fiasco' as the Washington Post would have us believe. The attempt to rescue our men was fully justified..."

REP. R.L. LEGGETT (Calif.) "... This operation was a first-magnitude blunder from the beginning... I say thank God there were no POW's there. If there had been, nothing in the world could have kept their captors from shooting them..."

SEN. EDWARD M. KENNEDY (Mass.) "... I just deplore the policy that permitted them to go..."

REP. W.F. RYAN (N.Y.) "... I certainly question the wisdom and judgment of those who authorized the mission..."

Gov. Says He Will Block Water Studies Spending

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

Gov. Preston Smith has called for re-evaluation of Texas' water planning and possible restructuring of the $9 billion statewide water plan proposed in 1968.

Smith told Chairman Marvin Shurbet of the Texas Water Development Board that he will block spending of all water study funds appropriated to WDB except those obligated under contracts. More than $1.4 million was appropriated last year for topographic mapping, water studies and investigations. About a third is obligated under contracts.

Governor Smith called attention to the fact that Texas voters rejected the $3.5 billion bond issue on August 5, 1969, that was designed to pay the state's share of the project's cost.

"In view of the critical shortage of state funds, additional expenditures for water studies and investigations would be inappropriate until we know that they would support whatever revised planning process we should decide to pursue," said Smith in a letter to Shurbet. "Accordingly it will be the policy of the governor's office to support continued outstanding efforts by the Board and its staff as we chart a new course in water resource planning."

One source said Smith feels that a long-range plan would get more support if citizens could see some concrete, short-term accomplishments in water development.

Smith reportedly may ask the Legislature to submit to the voters a bond program to finance aid to cities for sewage treatment.

Original study plan to bring surplus Mississippi River water to Texas was turned down by the voters. Consensus is that Texans as well as Mississippians look with disfavor on this idea.

At the DeCordova Bend Reservoir dedication on June 19 Smith declared that Texas cannot postpone development of water resources on a big scale until all controversies about the long-range water plan are resolved.

COURTS SPEAK

State Supreme Court declined to hear arguments in a suit by several state employees, who hold minor elective offices, to get their November paychecks which have been held up by the Comptroller.

High Court stuck by its November 11 ruling which upheld the constitutionality of part of the state's anti-obscenity law, although it declined to rule on much of it in a Wichita Falls theater case.

In other action the Supreme Court:

- * Found Waco and the Waco Independent School District are authorized to levy taxes against Henry W. Stilwell Memorial Residence for retired school teachers in Waco. Home claimed exemption as purely public charity.
- * Held against an El Paso firm which wanted to sue a professional auditing concern which failed to discover that a woman employee had embezzled $40,000 during 1962-65.

BOUNDARY SUIT MOVES ON

Louisiana waited 92 years too long to claim its boundaries extend to the west bank of the Sabine River, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin argued in a hearing on the boundary dispute.

Martin and former Gov. Price Daniel, serving as special counsel, argued Texas' case before Special Master (Senior Federal Judge) Robert Van Pelt of Nebraska in Houston.

Ownership of hundreds of millions of dollars in oil and gas is at stake from wells in the Gulf in Mexico at the mouth of the Sabine River.

Former Gov. Sam Jones, first governor of Louisiana to stake claim to all of the river, argued as special counsel representing his state.

Texas claims its boundary extends to the middle of the Sabine River, including a disputed area of 36,000 acres on which $2.6 million has been collected from oil leases for the permanent school fund.

Congress and the Louisiana constitution agreed on the midpoint of the Sabine as the state boundary. Martin contended. However, Louisiana bases its claim on an 1819 treaty between the U.S. and Spain.

REP. C.A. VANIK (Ohio)

"... This vain action jeopardizes the life of every prisoner of war who still survives in North Vietnam... It also threatens the Paris peace talks..."

A GRASSROOTS COMMENT

Current copies of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD go to every embassy around the world. Friend and foe alike, will note the congressmen's reaction to the POW rescue mission. -J.C.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

I have about given up on the plan I bring up every year about this time to get Congress to equalize Christmas, to pass a Christmas Gift Support Program whereby a man, if he spent more for gifts than he got, could have the government make up the difference, thus allowing everybody to come out even.

I can't get any Congressman to introduce the bill, on account of geography. I guess it's on account of television, but Congress now knows more about geography than ever before in history, and every time a good domestic program is thought up, Congress discovers another country needing help.

When Congressmen grew up in log cabins and went to one-teacher schools where Geography consisted of memorizing the capitals of the 48 states and you just 15 if you father was on the school board, foreign aid was handled mostly by Missionary Societies who raised the money from rummage sales.

I don't know enough about world problems to have an opinion, which doesn't stop me and most people from having one, but since World War II, according to an article I read last night in a newspaper a neighbor gift-wrapped me a present in the United States has spent over 100 billion dollars helping other countries and as far as I can tell about all we've gotten in return is a few Christmas cards.

But I didn't start out to deplore anything, this is Christmas time and there's nothing wrong with Christmas cards, although gift-wrapped packages are better. Understand though they don't have to be gift-wrapped. It's what's inside that counts, whether you're talking about present or people. Especially people.

Merry Christmas, Editor Frank Luecke.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Buckholts School Has New Free Lunch Policy

The Buckholts Rural High School District has announced a new "free and reduced" lunch policy for children who are eligible.

Leon Brady, superintendent of the district addressed the following statement to parents in the district:

"Buckholts Rural High School District has long recognized the need for helping meet the nutritional needs of its students.

The school serves a well-balanced nutritious lunch each school day. The charge to students who can pay is 35 cents.

However, since some families find it difficult to pay this full price, the school will provide these lunches free of charge or at a reduced price to those children determined by the superintendent to be unable to pay the full price for their lunches.

Families who feel that their children may be eligible for free or reduced price lunches are urged to apply. Copies of the application form are available at the school's office.

The completed application, signed by an adult member of the family should be sent to the school office. Such applications will be reviewed promptly and within three days the family will be notified in writing as to the decision made.

All information provided on the application will be held in the strictest confidence."

Luke tells us what Christmas is all about in chapter 2, verse 14, when he shouts — Glory To God In The Highest, and On Earth, Peace And Good Will To All Men. It takes only two words to speak the Christmas Message, — "glory" and "Peace." These words express the glory of God as no others do. That historic babe, born in a manger, has transformed a whole world. His spirit means Christmas in the life of humans such as we. In Him is embodied the love, patience, and essential goodness of the best man who ever lived— Jesus. He is the true example of the God of power and righteousness. Men knew he was all-powerful but had never known He was all-loving. We must not wallow away Christmas Day by guzzling up our blessings in dismay. Let us give of our best in the spirit of Joy. Exchange gifts, if you may, in memory of Him who taught us that it is always more blessed to give than to receive.

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

Yes is the Church
The Church is You
— Here a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs
the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader, and attend services regularly.
